Historical Note: The Dolan family was involved in several local businesses at the start of the 20th century including a large sand operation, construction of rental properties, and managing a bar. This collection pertains mainly to the management and business transactions of the Dolan Sand Company and assorted court papers related to legal disputes the business was involved in.

Summary of Contents: The collection contains eight boxes of business records and land agreements related to the operations of Dolan Sand Company between 1900 and 1929. This includes everything from receipts and railroad shipping invoices to legal papers concerning failed payments and the dissolution of the Braid Brothers Company which Dolan Sand succeeded. Operations of the company are preserved and foldered in chronological order with the same varieties of material appearing for each respective year. Also included are the correspondence and personal papers of Michael Dolan for the years 1882 to 1911.

Arrangement: No arrangement standard present, boxes are organized as presented to VRL by the donor.
