Historical Note: The Reynolds Family has inhabited Greene County since at least the start of the 19th century as evidenced by material within this collection. One family member of particular note, Alexander Reynolds, was born in Windham, NY in 1816 and celebrated his 102nd birthday in Catskill, NY where he took up residence later in life.

Summary of Contents: The collection contains correspondence and a considerable amount of business and legal documents related to properties and transactions the Reynolds and Sherman families conducted in the mid and late 19th century. Some folders also contain household and farm account books along with associated receipts and bonds. Additionally, a bound copy of "Summer Homes and Tours on the Line of the Picturesque West Shore Railroad" from the 1895 season is present, likely in supplement to a folder on Windham, NY where portions of the family took residence.

Arrangement: Material is sorted into folders by pertinent individual or place, box is organized as presented to VRL by the donor.

Acquisition: Gift by family in 1966, supporting documentation not present.

Processing Details: None available.

Publication: Collection processor information and dates unavailable, finding aid created Fall 2016 by Jonathan Palmer.
